LAW 25), AND THE PENDING OVERTIME PAY BILL

MAY 3, 1943.—Referred to the Committee on Appropriations and ordered to be printed

THE WHITE HOUSE,
Washington, April 24, 1943.

The SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith for the consideration of the Congress supplemental estimates of appropriations for the fiscal year 1943, amounting in all to $122,050,900, to cover the cost of additional compensation granted to certain employees of the Federal Government by the act of August 1, 1942 (Public Law 694), the act of December 22, 1942 (Public Law 821), the act of April 9, 1943 (Public Law 25), and the pending overtime pay bill. This sum also includes estimates submitted by the legislative establishment and the judiciary to cover the cost of similar increased compensation for their employees.

SUPPLEMENTAL ESTIMATES OF APPROPRIATIONS

The details of these estimates, the necessity therefor, and the reasons for their transmission at this time are set forth in the letter of the Director of the Bureau of the Budget transmitted herewith, in whose comments and observations thereon I concur.

Respectfully,

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT, BUREAU OF THE BUDGET,
Washington, D. C., April 21, 1943.

The PRESIDENT,
The White House.

SIR: I have the honor to submit herewith for your consideration supplemental estimates of appropriations for the fiscal year 1943, amounting in all to $122,050,900, to cover the cost of additional compensation granted to certain employees of the Federal Government by the act of August 1, 1942 (Public Law 694), the act of December 22, 1942 (Public Law 821), the act of April 9, 1943 (Public Law 25), and the pending overtime pay bill. This sum also includes estimates submitted by the Legislative Establishment and the Judiciary to cover the cost of similar increased compensation for their employees.

The act of August 1, 1942 (Public Law 694), amended section 13 of the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, by increasing the salary rates of grades 1 and 2 of the "subprofessional service" and grades 1 to 8, inclusive, of the former "custodial service" which was renamed the "crafts, protective, and custodial service" by the same act. As this act became effective on August 1, 1942, the estimated costs shown herein are on an 11-month basis.

The act of December 22, 1942 (Public Law 821), extended until April 30, 1943, the period during which overtime compensation may be paid under the acts of June 28, 1940 (54 Stat. 676), October 21, 1940 (54 Stat. 1205), and June 3, 1941 (55 Stat. 241), and also provided for the payment of overtime compensation, or additional compensation in lieu thereof, to the majority of the civilian employees of the Federal Government not covered by the prior acts. As the provisions of this act were made retroactive to December 1, 1942, the estimated costs shown herein are for the 5-month period ending April 30, 1943.

The act of April 9, 1943 (Public Law 25), which becomes effective on May 1, 1943, provides for additional compensation for employees in the Postal Service whose rates of compensation are prescribed by the act of February 28, 1925, as amended, and all other officers and employees paid from appropriations made for the field service of the Post Office Department. The estimated costs under this act cover the 2-month period ending June 30, 1943.

There is now pending in Congress bill H. R. 1860, which provides for payment of overtime compensation or additional compensation in lieu thereof for the 2 remaining months of this fiscal year. For the purpose of this submission the provisions of H. R. 1860, as agreed to by the conferees of the House and Senate, have been used as the basis for estimating the cost of overtime compensation to be paid employees other than those covered by the act of April 9, 1943.

The following statement shows by departments, establishments, and agencies for the fiscal year 1943 (1) the total estimated cost of the pay increases under Public Law 694 (77th Cong.); (2) the total estimated cost of overtime pay under Public Law 821 (77th Cong.), Public Law 25 (78th Cong.), and H. R. 1860; (3) that portion of the cost which will be absorbed by existing appropriations; and (4) the remaining cost for which supplemental estimates under the proper appropriation titles are herewith submitted:

The estimates submitted by the various departments, establishments, and agencies have been carefully reviewed and revised by the Bureau of the Budget and every effort has been made to absorb as much as possible of the additional cost of these increases in compensation and only that portion of the cost which cannot be absorbed is recommended for consideration.

Supplemental estimates of appropriations required for the fiscal year 1943, listed by titles for the departments, establishments, and agencies concerned, are attached hereto.

Attention is invited to the general provision included in the estimate which provides for the waiving of certain restrictions to the extent necessary to meet the increases in compensation authorized by the above-mentioned acts, and other legislation enacted during and applicable to the fiscal year 1943 authorizing overtime compensation for civilian employees of the Government. This provision is essential because in many instances the appropriations and other funds available for expenditure for compensation of civilian personnel contain language limiting the amount which may be expended for personal services and for other purposes.

These estimates of appropriations are required in connection with legislation enacted and proposed since the transmission to the Congress of the Budget for the fiscal year 1943, and I recommend their approval.

Very respectfully,

HAROLD D. SMITH,
Director of the Bureau of the Budget.

The restrictions contained in appropriations or affecting appropriations or other funds, available during the fiscal year 1943, limiting the amounts which may be expended for personal services or for other purposes, are hereby waived to the extent necessary to meet the increases in compensation authorized by the act of August 1, 1942 (Public Law 694), amending section 13 of the Classification Act of 1923, the act of December 22, 1942 (Public Law 821), authorizing the payment of overtime compensation to civilian employees in or under the United States Government, the act of April 9, 1943 (Public Law 25), authorizing additional compensation for employees in the Postal Service, and by other legislation enacted during and applicable to the fiscal year 1943 authorizing overtime compensation for civilian employees of the Government: Provided, That the head of any department, establishment, or agency is hereby authorized to allocate from the sum herein appropriated under any appropriation title administered by him to any subappropriation under such title such amount as may be necessary for the purposes of this section.

Amended

Agencies Absorb

75 Per Cent of Overtime

Federal agencies have absorbed about 75 per cent of the cost of the Overtime Pay Act which expired on April 30 and which is slated to be considered today by the House. The cost of the Overtime and Custodial Pay Raise Acts on an 11-month basis is estimated at $600,867,442 but $475,666,212 will have been absorbed by Federal agencies by June 30 and the President has asked Congress to appropriate only 122 million dollars to finance the overtime and pay raise bills. The President ordered the agencies to offset the overtime cost whenever possible and the truth is that the net cost of the Pay Acts is considerably smaller than was estimated.

It's estimated that the cost of the Postal Pay Raise Act will be only somewhat less than the 122 million dollars which will benefit some 1,500,000 employes while the postal bill covers approximately 350,000 workers. Half of the overtime cost will be allocated to the Navy and more than a score of agencies won't get a nickel to finance the overtime cost. Many of these agencies have been forced to reduce their staffs by the Budget Bureau and the saving in salaries will offset the cost of overtime. Chairman Ramspeck hopes to get action today on the pay bill conference report. The House will be asked to reconsider its action of two weeks ago in rejecting the conference report. Representative Worley of Texas, who voted against the report, has moved for reconsideration.
