CORRECTION OF THE RECORD

Mr. SIKES. Mr. Speaker, in the Concgressional Record of Monday, July 6, the last sentence of a statement made by me on page H6110 is incorrectly recorded.
I ask unanimous consent that this sentence be corrected in the permanent Rec-donate, as stated in this statement:

For Inez, who has stood by me, so steadfastly and helped me so much, and for me, let me thank you with all sincerity, from the bottom of a grateful heart.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Kentucky? The Chair hears none, and appoints the following conferences: Messrs.
PARKER, PUCHER, BEDDANS, CARY,
WILLIAM D. FOSTER, MERRILL, AYRES, ASHBROOK, QUIET, and GOSPEL.

SERMON: "I CANNOT CONDONE CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE"

Mr. JONES of Missouri asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.

Mr. JONES of Missouri, Mr. Speaker, I listened to my colleague, the gentleman from Missouri (Mr. HULT) when he asked permission to extend in the Rec-donate a sermon delivered by Reverend Dr.
Arthur C. Fulbright, pastor of the First Methodist Church in St. Joseph, Mo., who was formerly a minister in the district that I represent. He pastored two churches there and I learned to respect Dr. Fulbright and to enjoy his sermons, expressing views with which I generally concurred.

I am urging all Members to read this sermon that Representative HULT has asked to be inserted in the Rec-donate today.
The text of that sermon was taken from the third chapter of Titus in which it is recorded.

I remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for any honest work, to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarreling and bitterness, and to show perfect courtesy toward all men.

The subject of his sermon was "I Cannot Condone Civil Disobedience." I would like to read just one short paragraph from that sermon which Dr. Fulbright delivered.

He said:

I cannot believe any person has the right to determine which civil laws he will obey and which he will not obey—whether he believes certain laws are unjust or unconstitutional.

We need more ministers and more preachers like Dr. Fulbright who believes in law and order and upholds them from his pulpit. He says the church is losing its tradition by thinking the Kingdom of God can come about by spreading social and economic justice.

The main purpose of the church is to try to win souls for our Lord, Jesus Christ.

More power to preachers like Dr.
Fulbright.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCES ON H.R. 12120, JUVENILE DELIN-QUENCY PREVENTION AND CON-TROL ACT OF 1968

Mr. PERKINS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to take from the Speaker's table the bill (H.R. 12120) to assist courts, correctional systems, and community agencies to prevent, treat, and control juvenile and adult delinquency and to support research and training efforts in the prevention, treatment, and control of juvenile delinquency, and for other purposes, with Senate amendments thereto, and not to agree to the Senate amendments, and request a conference with the Senate thereon.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Kentucky? The Chair hears none, and appoints the following conferences: Messrs.
PERKINS, PUCHER, BEDDANS, CARY,
WILLIAM D. FOSTER, MERRILL, AYRES,
ASHBROOK, QUIET, and GOSPEL.

STRICT GUN LAWS ARE INVASION OF THE RIGHTS OF SELF-PRO-TECTION

Mr. CARTER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.

Mr. CARTER. Mr. Speaker, during the past 2 years, senseless riots have racked the cities of our land; and crime during the past 8 years has increased 88 percent.
Lurid scenes of rioting, looting, and arson have been viewed on television screens throughout our country. Looters brazenly breaking store windows and carrying away merchandise, while police stand helpless, have been shown many times as a sub, fear stalks our land.

The breakdown in law enforcement has become clearly evident to our citizens.
Our people are convinced that protection of their persons, their property and their homes depends upon themselves. For this purpose, they have bought firearms by the hundreds of thousands during the past year.

Mr. Speaker, until we convince our people by appropriate governmental action that laws to protect people and property are going to be enforced, our citizens will view strict gun laws as an invasion of their rights of self-protection, as well as a breach of their constitutional right to "keep and bear arms."

PROTESTS DISCRIMINATION AGAINST RURAL AMERICA

Mr. ZION asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.

Mr. ZION. Mr. Speaker, I have been concerned, since the release of the Kerner Commission report, about the increasing emphasis on urban blight and the need for urban action. We have fully concluded with many commentators in this report, especially as they relate to the need for job opportunities and development of job skills through which individuals and families can escape the confines of city life. But, I am more concerned over the failure of the President to appoint any responsible Federal agency to spot the growing crises and critical problems of rural povyety and blight.
