PERSONNEL NEWS

Ronnie Marcotte left STRI this past week and is now working for the DOD at Howard.

DeLoris Highsmith will also be leaving us this week. DeLoris will be joining the Panama Canal Commission and will be working at the Marine Bureau in the Administration Building.

We wish both Ronnie and DeLoris best of luck in their new jobs.

and.....

The new voice answering the telephone at the Tivoli belongs to Hely Kristine Cortez, and we take this opportunity to welcome her to STRI (although a little late).

ARRIVALS & DEPARTURES

Leaving Monday, October 6th is Dr. Gordon Hendler who will be returning to the U.S.

Arriving, this week-end are Doctors Martin Moynihan and Olga Linares who are returning to STRI.

SEMINAR NEWS

We do not have a seminar scheduled for Tuesday, October 7th yet. Please check your bulletin boards for any announcement at the beginning of the week.

JOFFREY BALLET COMPANY TO PERFORM AT PANAMA'S NATIONAL THEATRE

Members of the Joffrey Ballet Company of New York will be performing in Panama's National Theatre on Oct. 8 and 9. The program which is a tribute to Anna Pavlova, who also danced at the National Theatre, features Gregory King, who first made a guest appearance with the Jose Greco Company at age 13, and Starr Danias, principal ballerina with the Joffrey. This ballet is being sponsored by the Instituto Nacional de Cultura (INAC) and the American Embassy. For reservations, call the National Theatre, the YMCA at Balboa, the American Legion at Fort Amador or the Amador-Washington Library.

Compliments of Dr. Neal G. Smith